DIRECTIONS

At the Sprinkling of Holy Water.

The Antiphon, Psalm, and Gloria Patri are begun by the Precentor, and continued by the Choir. At the end of the Psalm-verse, the Precentor again intones the Antiphon, the Choir continuing. At the end of Gloria Patri, (which is never omitted, even in Passion-tide,) the Precentor begins the Antiphon at the words 'Thou shalt wash me,' (or in Paschal-tide 'and all they,') the remainder being sung by the Choir.

At the Office or Introit.

The Antiphon, Psalm & Gloria Patri are intoned by the Rulers as far as the* the Choir continuing. The Antiphon is sung thrice on all Sundays and Festivals, viz: before and after the Psalm, and after Gloria Patri. On Ferias (e.g. Ash Wednesday), it is sung twice only — at the beginning and end of the Introit. The Tones and Endings of the Gloria Patri are given once for all at pp. 2—4.
